ANDERSON HALL

MARYVILLE COLLEGE

OCTOBER, 1941

HOMECOMING

Homecoming Day is Saturday, November 1

1. Colored Moving Pictures in Bartlett Hall at 5:00 p. m.
2. Barbecue and campfire on the baseball field at 5:45 p. m.
3. Football game at 8:00 p. m.—Maryville vs. Carson-Newman.

The Executive Committee has elected the following people to serve on the committees to plan and prepare for Homecoming:

1. The Food Committee: Earl Blazer, F. A. Griffiths, Mrs. J. W. King.
2. The Entertainment Committee: Joe C. Gamble, Mrs. J. C. Gamble, Donnell W. McArthur, Charles F. Webb.
3. The Decoration Committee: Hugh R. Crawford, Jr., David H. Briggs, L. Scott Honaker, Jr.

When Maryville and Carson-Newman play football, words are superfluous. Tickets to the game, if bought at the barbecue, will be sold to alumni at half price which is 55c this year, including the special tax. All former athletes of Maryville College wearing their block letter "M" will be given free tickets to the game—at the barbecue. You will help those in charge of the program by sitting in the section of the bleachers reserved for alumni.

Sunday, November 2, at 2:00 p. m.—Dedication of a plaque marking the location, near Knoxville, where Isaac Anderson established Union Academy in 1802.

THE ALUMNI PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To come back and breathe the atmosphere of the old campus after an absence of a quarter of a century is an inspiring experience. Amid scenes—and not a few faces—that continually speak of by gone days and tend to put one in reminiscent mood, one sees many evidences of progress. A more beautifully landscaped and better kept campus, artistic entrances, well-paved roads, better athletic fields, relocated heating plant, an enlarged and tastefully decorated dining room, a chapel organ—these are only a few of the external improvements which greet the eye.

Through ear and eye one soon discovers, moreover, a new emphasis on music and the fine arts, as revealed in the excellent performances of the choir, orchestra, band, and glee clubs, and equally worthy productions in the fields of art and drama. Less evident, but even more important, are the high standards of scholarship which are being constantly upheld by a hard-working faculty and a hard-worked student body. All agree that a degree from Maryville College is well earned.

Years ago a friend said to me, "Many parents send their children back to their own college thinking that it is the same institution which they themselves attended. Don't make that mistake." Not knowing Maryville, he was speaking generally, but his statement was worth considering. During these years when great changes have been taking place in society and in the philosophy of education, not always for the better, one could not but wonder if the same moral and spiritual ideals were being held up to this generation as were held up to us. My observations during the past seven months have completely reassured me, and I shall continue to say to my friends, as I have often done, "Maryville is a good college."

It seems to me, however, that one of her chief needs now is for additional physical equipment. In the past the Alumni Association has assisted in providing the Alumni Gymnasium and the enlargement of Pearsons Dining Hall. Is it not time that we, as an Association, come forward to assist in some of the building projects which the College has in view?

The day of big fortunes is largely past. What philanthropy is done in the future will be in moderate sums by people of moderate means, but generous hearts. Although Maryville alumni are seldom found in the higher economic brackets, yet I believe they yield to no one in the field of gratitude and devotion. May I suggest that your appreciation and loyalty show itself in the following ways:

1. Attend Homecoming, November 1, and Alumni Day in May.
2. Send us news of yourself and fellow alumni.
3. Remit your $2 dues to the Secretary NOW.
4. Keep the Secretary informed of any change of address.
5. Send us your ideas as to how the Association can be of service.

With a vigorous, paid-up membership of 2500, what couldn't we do! Let's hear from you.

Yours for the Old College,

J. Edward Kidder, '16*

*Mr. Kidder received the B.A. degree from Maryville College in 1916, the degree of S.T.B. from Western Theological Seminary in 1919, and that of M.A. from the University of Pittsburgh in 1926 when on one of his furloughs from China, where he has been a missionary since 1920. During the present year he is on furlough again and he and his family are living in Maryville where two sons are enrolled in college, one a senior and the other a junior.

THE CLOSING AND OPENING OF YEARS

There are three kinds of years at Maryville College: (1) the "college" year from enrolment in the fall to Commencement in the spring; (2) the "fiscal" year, from July 1 to June 30; (3) and, of course, the "calendar" year from January 1 to December 31.

The "college" year of 1940-1941 closed with the Commencement Exercises on June 4. The College awarded the Bachelor's degree to 133 seniors. The honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon the Reverend Frank Moore Cross, of the Class of 1916, Pastor of the Ensley Highland Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Alabama; and the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon Charles Ross Endsley, Superintendent of the Tennessee Military Institute, Sweetwater, Tennessee. Fifty-year certificates were awarded to the six surviving members of the Class of 1891. The address to the graduating class was given by Rev. Dr. Gould Wickey, of Washington, D. C., General Secretary of the National Conference of Church-Related Colleges.

The "fiscal" year of 1940-1941 closed on June 30 with an operating deficit of $4,186, due to rising costs, but with all current bills paid and, fortunately, with sufficient accumulated surplus to absorb the deficit. However, it means starting the new fiscal year at a disadvantage.

The "college" year of 1941-1942 opened on September 2. According to the new college schedule announced last spring and in effect for the first time this year, the first semester will close December 18, the second semester will open January 7 and close with Commencement at the early date of May 18.

The dormitories and dining hall are full, but there are fewer students from the local community and some fewer boys also from other places, making the total enrolment of the College sixty-one under that of a year ago. The reasons are familiar to all—the draft, attractive jobs for both men and women, a trend toward the technical training emphasized by the national defense program, uncertainty as to the demands which war is to make upon young men.

The college chapel appears to be as full as ever, but actually it is not so. This will probably help the academic efficiency by reducing the "capacity crowd." But it will create a definite budget hardship since it represents a decrease of some $7,000 in tuition income without any possibility of reducing instructional or operating expenses. In fact operating costs are mounting each week.

The spirit evident on the campus is earnest and courageous. The College looks forward to a good year of work, to a difficult year in balancing the budget, but to a successful year in growth of the New Forward Fund.

THE CHANGING COMMUNITY

When Maryville was a quiet little village of fifty houses and two hundred and fifty people, Isaac Anderson, Founder and first President of Maryville College, wished to move his institution to the country away from what he called "the noise and confusion of the town." After his death that dream was realized in the removal to the present campus, but he would be startled at the changes which have come over the years.

The writer of these lines remembers that in his student days, three-quarters of a century after Dr. Anderson expressed his concern, Maryville was a county seat town of about 3,000 people, without water works or paved streets, and accessible only by a limited number of trains running daily from Knoxville. Then came the Aluminum Company plants two miles from the campus; then the modern automobile cavalcade with its roads; then the Smoky Mountains National Park, entered twenty miles away by a main highway that runs by the campus, with its visitors; then the extensive house building plans of the nineteen hundred and thirties; finally the industrial expansion for the National Emergency and National Defense. This year over one million visitors have entered the Smoky Mountains National Park, breaking all American National Park records. The airport traffic has increased within the past three or four years, from two transport planes a day in two directions to thirty-six transport planes a day in seven directions. This year the Aluminum Company plants are being so increased that the number of workers has grown already from about 6,000 to 10,000 and is still growing. This year it is estimated that the population in the twin cities of Maryville and Alcoa and their general environs has probably reached 20,000.

The immediate effects of all this on the College are not great. But the College will have to reckon with the ultimate effects, both bad and good. The vast development of water and electrical power throughout the Tennessee Valley will doubtless bring marked social changes to the whole region within the coming years.

MARYVILLE APPROVED BY A. A. U. W.

On May 5 and subsequent dates President Lloyd was notified that the American Association of University Women, at its biennial meeting in Cincinnati, had approved Maryville College for corporate membership in the Association and a place on "List I." This action was taken upon recommendation of the Committee on Membership and Maintaining Standards after the filing of an application and an extensive report by the College, and after an examination of the College by a representative of the Committee. Maryville has been on the Association's "List III" for a number of years but had not until 1941 made application for the full approval which has now been granted.

The A. A. U. W. has two kinds of individual membership, National and Associate. They are described by the Association as follows:

"I. National Membership. 1. Women with approved degrees from colleges and universities which have been approved by the Association are eligible to national membership, either through a branch or as general members, maintaining relations individually with the national Association. It should be noted that not all degrees conferred by approved institutions are recognized.

"2. Women holding higher degrees from American universities which do not grant the baccalaureate degree to women, but which have been recommended by the Committee on Membership and Maintaining Standards and approved by a three-fourths vote of the delegates present at a convention, are eligible to national membership.

"II. Associate Membership. 1. Women with approved degrees from institutions which have partially fulfilled the requirements of the Association and have been placed on the associate list by the Committee on Membership and Maintaining Standards (List III in list of colleges and universities approved by the American Association of University Women) are eligible to associate membership in branches having that type of membership.

"2. Women, not registered in any institution as undergraduates, who have completed two full years of academic work in any college or university on the approved list of the national Association (List I) shall be eligible to associate membership.

"No women who is eligible to national membership may hold associate membership."

Prior to May 1941, Maryville College graduates were eligible for associate membership only, since the College was on List III. Now women graduates of Maryville College are eligible for full active national membership and women not now in college who have completed two years at Maryville College are now eligible for associate membership. Both of Maryville's degrees (B.A. and B.S. in H.E) are approved. These provisions are retroactive, applying to women graduates of all past years.

The American Association of University Women includes among its purposes "the maintenance of high standards of education and the furtherance of the interests of women in education." The Association does not give approval to an institution unless satisfied that that institution meets certain specified requirements which grow out of the Association's objectives. The Association states, "These objectives involve not merely insistence on academic requirements and on the requisite program for advanced scholarship, such as adequately trained faculties and indispensable material equipment, but also emphasis on the proper provisions for the housing, health, and other social needs of women students, and on a due recognition of women in the student bodies, the faculties, the administration and the governing boards of colleges and universities admitting women." One basic requirement for approval is that the institution be on the approved list of the Association of American Universities.

The American Association of University Women is one of the strong organizations in the field of higher education in the nation. It has a varied program and has branches in all leading centers throughout the country. The headquarters offices are in Washington, D. C. Women who hold degrees from Maryville College are now eligible for membership in these various branches and are eligible for general membership if there are no branches in the communities where they live. It is suggested that Maryville alumnae make inquiry of officers of branches in their communities. The Alumni Office at the College will be glad to secure information for any who desire it. For many years some Maryville College alumnae have been associate members of A. A. U. W.; some who have learned of the present opportunity have already become national members; doubtless many others will now wish to apply for such membership.

FIFTY-YEAR CERTIFICATES

For the first time at the Commencement of 1941 the College presented Fifty-Year Certificates to members of the class celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of graduation. That class this year was, of course, the class of 1891, in which there were fourteen graduates. Only six were still living in June 1941. Of these, two were present at the Commencement exercises: Miss Mary E. ("Miss Molly") Caldwell, of Maryville, who retired in 1936 from the staff of the College after service of thirty-six years; and the Rev. Samuel A. Caldwell, of Cincinnati, recently retired after a ministry of a half century in the Middle West and West. The four members of the class who could not be present were: Mrs. Flora Henry Hamilton, Tacoma, Washington; Rev. Robert B. Irwin, Decatur, Illinois; Rev. Charles C. McGinley, Independence, Missouri; and Rev. J. Newton McGinley, Neoga, Illinois.

The two present were called forward and presented with certificates, which in fact were not real certificates since these had not yet been printed. The certificate which has been drawn up and is to be sent to them contains the following wording, arranged in appropriate form:

THE DIRECTORS, PRESIDENT, AND FACULTY OF MARYVILLE COLLEGE To the Friends of Learning everywhere, Greeting: Be it known that MARY ELLEN CALDWELL having been granted the Bachelor's Degree by Maryville College in the year Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-One is this day awarded this certificate in recognition and honor of THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF GRADUATION. In Witness Whereof, this certificate is granted and the Seal of the College and the signatures of the President of the College and the Secretary of the Faculty are hereunto affixed. Given at Maryville in the State of Tennessee this fourth day of June in the year of our Lord the nineteen hundred and forty-first and of the College the one hundred and twenty-second.

As soon as sufficient certificates are ready and properly inscribed one will be sent also to each living graduate of more than fifty years. It is planned to make a public presentation of the certificate each year to members of the fifty-year class of that year.

DR. DAVIS—TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Dr. E. W. Davis, Professor of Greek and Latin and Secretary of the Faculty, completed twenty-five years on the faculty at the last Commencement. His colleagues of the faculty gave special recognition to this anniversary at the meeting of the Faculty Club on October 6. President Lloyd read an appropriate statement and presented twenty-five roses to Dr. and Mrs. Davis.

Dr. Davis has been at Maryville College since the fall of 1915 with the exception of the one year of 1919-1920. For the past ten years he has been Secretary of the Faculty as well as a professor. He has been a teacher thirty-eight years, most of these in the field of Greek and Latin, and twenty-five of them at Maryville College.

Dr. Davis was reared in Illinois, has taken degrees at Missouri Valley College and Harvard University, and received the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters from Maryville College in 1937.

There are now nine members of the faculty and staff who have served twenty-five or more years at Maryville College.

IMPROVEMENTS ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Elsewhere in this issue there is a report concerning the paving of roads, the additions to the dairy, and the Anna Belle Smith Studio House. In the following sentences mention is made of other recent improvements and additions. There is no effort to catalog all things which might fall under this head, but some of them are:

(1) Valuable additions and improvements to the radio broadcasting equipment and arrangements.

(2) Extensive remodeling in the Anderson Hall Annex to provide a Treasurer's office of larger size; relocating the "printing" offices; converting the former Treasurer's office into offices for the Dean of Curriculum and the Public Relations and Alumni Secretary; and some other office changes. (This work is not yet completed.)

(3) Classroom remodeling, continuing a program in progress for a number of years.

(4) Repainting of approximately 127 dormitory rooms, the hospital, etc.

(5) Purchase of "The Chatterbox" and its removal to the campus (between Baldwin and Pearsons Halls) to serve as quarters for a combined YWCA-YMCA store.

(6) Addition of a two-manual Estey Practice Organ ($450) to the music equipment. For practice purposes this will supplement the Wicks Organ in the Chapel, and will make it possible to take a larger number of organ students than heretofore.

(7) A new multigraph made necessary by the final collapse of the one which had been in use for the past quarter of a century.

(8) New draperies, furniture, and decorating in the parlors of Baldwin Hall.

(9) Removal of the shop machinery from the basement of Thaw Hall to the shop building beside the new Heating Plant, releasing valuable space for library or other academic use.

(10) Leasing to the City the College's 50,000-gallon water tank located behind the President's House, once part of the College's private water system but unused for about twenty years. Its color has been changed from black to silver, a new pipe line has been laid to it, and when the City has completed its work there should be improved water pressure both on the campus and in the high ground areas of the City near the campus.

THE ROADS ARE PAVED!

For 108 years the College had no paved roads, so far as the record shows. For a half century prior to 1870 the campus was at the corner of Main and College Streets where the New Providence Presbyterian Church now stands and there was no paving in the town. From 1870 to 1927 there was no paved road (although there were board, brick, and concrete walks on the new campus); in 1927 an excellent piece of concrete pavement (part of which unfortunately must now be closed in the new campus road plan) was laid from the Court Street entrance to the Book Store; in 1934 Dr. W. P. Stevenson and Mrs. John Walker laid an asphalt pavement from Bartlett Hall to The-House-in-the-Woods (Dr. Stevenson's home) and Morningside (Mrs. Walker's home) in the Woods; in 1935 a new road plan for the central campus was worked out; in the summer of 1940 about half of the unpaved portions were paved; and now in 1941 the remaining portions, including the Corduroy, have been paved. Certain sections of the former roads are being closed. The cost of the paving done during these past two summers has been between $8,000 and $9,000. Part of the receipts from the New Forward Fund have been allocated to this purpose.

These roads with the three Gateways, the Steps below Carnegie, the rock walls and smaller steps at other points, new fences, and paved walks added from time to time, have done much to transform the campus during the past few years.

Yet it was soon discovered that blessings are not without accompanying problems. The good campus roads and the rough city streets nearby caused many motorists to travel through the campus. But the erecting of "stop" signs at several places and the polite stopping of cars at each entrance and explaining of the campus traffic problem and regulations for a few days have done much to reduce the traffic, and all college folk are happy in prospect of the campus' first winter on pavement.

NEW BOOK BY DR. SHINE

Dr. Hill Shine, Associate Professor of English at Maryville College, and a recognized authority on the life and work of Thomas Carlyle, has just had a new book published by The Johns Hopkins Press of Baltimore. The volume bears also the names "London: Humphrey Milford" and "Oxford University Press."

The title of the book is "Carlyle and the Saint-Simonians" and the subtitle "The Concept of Historical Periodicity." There are 191 well-written and well-documented pages. The book is the result of Dr. Shine's long and thorough study of the writings by and about Carlyle and his mature research. The Saint-Simonians were a group of social and religious thinkers in France about 1825 and the years immediately following. Their writings came to Carlyle's notice in 1830. Dr. Shine has an earlier book on Carlyle entitled "Carlyle's Fusion of Poetry, History, and Religion," published in 1938 by the University of North Carolina Press. The use of microfilm secured from Paris for the Maryville College Library and microfilm in other libraries has been an interesting and important factor in Dr. Shine's study.

The following sentences from Dr. Shine's Foreword will give some introduction to the book: "In summarizing those studies, one feels that the whole problem of Carlyle's relation with the Saint-Simonians needs re-examination. No detailed or definitive study of all the aspects of the problem or even of all the primary material exists. . . . Our present study, though adequate in primary material is, alas, incomplete in the other respect. That is, leaving the social aspect of the relation for later treatment, the present study deals with Carlyle's indebtedness to the Saint-Simonians for his mature concept of historical periodicity. As it proceeds, it will, nevertheless, show how his mature social viewpoint is undergirded and made intelligible by the theory of historical periodicity. By thus tracing Carlyle's most fundamental relation with the Saint-Simonian Society, this study (it is hoped) will throw some new light on the entry of a too-little-known element in Nineteenth Century English thought."

MRS. BARKER'S BOOK

"Yesterday Today" is the title of a delightful book of 263 pages just published by The Caxton Printers, Ltd. It has special interest for Maryville College folk because its author is Catherine Sweazey Barker, wife of Lincoln Barker who came this year to the Maryville College faculty as Associate Professor of Psychology and Education. "Yesterday Today" is a book about the Ozark mountain country and the people who live there. It is based on information gathered by Mrs. Barker over a period of years when Mr. Barker was in college work and she was active in social service work in the Ozark region. The book was written later while Mr. and Mrs. Barker were living in Salt Lake City, where Mr. Barker was Dean of Westminster College and she was active as a writer and speaker in the life of church and other organizations. Other writings of hers have been published by magazines.

NEW BOOK BY JOHN W. RITCHIE, '98

"Biology and Human Affairs" is the title of a book of 1026 pages written by John W. Ritchie, of the Class of 1898, and published in 1941 by the World Book Company. The book is planned as a textbook especially for secondary school students. It is divided into twenty-two units covering the whole field of biology. There is a wealth of illustrative material, pictures being on a large proportion of the more than one thousand pages. A copy of the book has been presented to the Maryville College Library by Dr. Ritchie.

Dr. Ritchie has long been eminent as an author in this field. For many years he has also been one of the editors of the World Book Company. In recognition of his work as a teacher, author, and editor, Maryville in 1936 conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters. Dr. Ritchie graduated from Maryville College in 1898 and was the first full-time teacher of biology in the College, serving on the college faculty from 1899 to 1901. His name has been one known to all Maryville students since his years at the College because he is the author of the words of the Alma Mater, written in 1899, and also of the newest college song, "Firm, Firm, She Stands," written after his visit to the College in 1936.

BOOK BY CLAIRE McMURRAY HOWARD, '21

Mrs. E. D. Howard (Claire McMurray, '21), daughter of the late Professor James H. McMurray and Mrs. McMurray, Manager of the College Maid Shop, at Maryville College, has attained considerable renown by her writing. For some years she has written a daily column in the Cleveland Plain Dealer (Ohio), based partly on human interest stories that gather around her own children and home. Sometime ago a compilation of the material was published in a book with the quaint title "—and Beat Him When He Sneezes," which soon became a current best seller. More recently the radio rights to the book have been purchased by the Vick Company, who are now sponsoring a regular broadcast of sketches from it. The broadcast at present may be heard each Sunday over one of the NBC chains at 4:30 p.m. (Central Time). A five-thousand-dollar prize contest conducted by the Vick Company to find a title for the program has just been closed and the judges' decision has not yet been announced.

ALUMNI AT PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The Maryville College Breakfast at the Presbyterian General Assembly, St. Louis, on May 24, 1941, was the most largely attended in the history of this event, there being more than eighty persons present, most of them alumni. Five of them were from the College itself: President and Mrs. Lloyd, Treasurer Proffitt, Dean Hunter, and Director of Maintenance Black. Mr. Black was a Commissioner to the Assembly. Plans were laid for the organization of a Maryville College club for the St. Louis—Missouri—Southern Illinois region.

BENEFIT LUNCHEON AND APRON SALE

On Saturday, November 29, there will be held a benefit luncheon and apron sale in Pearsons Dining Hall. It is the first occasion of this kind held at Maryville. Its sponsors are Mrs. Ralph Waldo Lloyd, wife of the President of the College, and a committee of alumnae and other women in the Maryville community. Its purpose is to raise money for a "Women's Dormitory Improvement Fund" from (1) any difference which may remain between the price charged and the expenses for the luncheon, and (2) the proceeds from the sale of aprons to those present and any others interested. The aprons will be donated by women who are friends, former students, and graduates. The price of the luncheon will be seventy-five cents.

It is expected that this will be a notable social occasion as well as a means of considerable financial benefit to the College. If the interest and response are large enough the event may become an annual one.

Every woman who sees or hears of this announcement is invited to make reservation and attend the luncheon and to bring or send one or more aprons. Any one who cannot attend and wishes to send a gift in money in lieu of the luncheon price and aprons may do so. Also those who cannot attend may purchase aprons. Reservations, aprons, and gifts should be sent to "Benefit Luncheon Committee, Alumni Office, Maryville College, Maryville, Tennessee."

FOUNDERS' DAY— 1941

The College catalog states that November 1 is "Founders' and Homecoming Day." Page two of this Alumni Magazine says "Homecoming Day" only. The reason is that the "Founders' Day" exercises to be held this fall will be in an unusual form.

On Sunday, November 2, at 2:00 p.m., in the country about twenty-five miles north of Maryville, a service of dedication will be held at the place where Isaac Anderson established in 1802 and conducted until 1812 Union Academy, which may be considered the predecessor of Maryville College which he founded in 1819. The place is on Murphy Road about seven miles north of downtown Knoxville and may be reached by going out of Knoxville by Broadway on the old Tazewell Pike past the Shannondale Presbyterian Church a mile or two and turning right on Murphy Road. Or it may be reached by going out of Knoxville on Washington Pike and turning left on Murphy Road, which is a short road connecting old Tazewell and Washington Pikes.

Isaac Anderson came from Virginia to that location in 1801, acquired this land as his farm and lived there until he removed to Maryville in 1812. He willed his farm of at least 215 acres to his granddaughter Rebecca Anderson who sold it in 1859 to Samuel K. Harris, whose daughters are members of the Simon Harris Chapter of the D. A. R. which is cooperating in this dedication. In recent years the land has been divided and sold to different persons. The present owner of the land on which the marker is being placed is Mr. I. Wayne Longmire of Knoxville. The present owner and occupant of the land on which the Union Academy stood is Mrs. M. C. Holmes. Isaac Anderson was pastor of the Washington Presbyterian Church a few miles beyond his farm from 1802 to 1812; in 1802 he built a large log school building on his farm and conducted Union Academy there until 1812; in Maryville he continued his academy work until 1819 when he founded the institution which became Maryville College. He conducted a school steadily from 1802 until near his death in 1857. Thus Maryville College may be said to have started actually in Union Academy whose location is to be marked on November 2.

The principal speaker at the dedication services, November 2, will be Mrs. William H. Pouch of New York City, President General of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Other participants in the program will be officers of the Simon Harris Chapter of the D. A. R. (Knoxville), President Lloyd of the College, Judge S. O. Houston, Chairman of the Directors of the College, and a number of college students.

A six-ton marble boulder from a nearby marble quarry is being placed near the road on the ground where the Isaac Anderson home is said to have stood. The location of the school building was about seven hundred feet west of this spot and from the present road. A tablet will be attached to the stone bearing the following inscription:

ONE-EIGHTH OF A MILE WEST OF THIS SPOT
THERE STOOD THE BUILDING OF UNION ACADEMY,
GENERALLY CALLED "MR. ANDERSON'S LOG COLLEGE,"
WHICH WAS CONDUCTED FROM 1802 TO 1812
BY REV. ISAAC ANDERSON, FOUNDER AND FIRST PRESIDENT OF MARYVILLE COLLEGE OF WHICH UNION ACADEMY WAS THE PREDECESSOR

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION
BY MARYVILLE COLLEGE
THIS 2ND DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1941

COLLEGE RADIO PROGRAMS

Since last February Maryville College has been broadcasting regular programs from its remote control studios in Voorhees Chapel.

At present there is one broadcast a week. It is called "Maryville College Radio Vespers," and is on the air each Sunday afternoon from 4:00 to 4:30 o'clock over station WROL of Knoxville (620 on the dial). There is a possibility that the hour or the station or both might be changed, but it is certain that the broadcast will continue to be on the air in the latter part of each Sunday afternoon. All alumni who can hear the Knoxville stations are invited to listen in and to watch for any changes. This broadcast includes a service by President Lloyd and the college choir under the direction of Associate Professor Colbert.

A week-night broadcast may be resumed later. If so, it is hoped that all interested persons may discover it. Two of the three football games thus far played at home have been broadcast by WROL. The Homecoming game with Carson-Newman on Saturday night, November 1, will probably be carried by WROL.

CLASSES DUE FOR REUNION IN 1942

ALUMNI DUES

The Alumni are to be congratulated on reaching again this past year the all time high record of a year ago in the payment of dues. Yet when we find that still less than one sixth of the membership is paying dues, we realize the possibilities of a real record year ahead.

Last year the expense of the Association was slightly less than its receipts, but with increased costs every where there must be greater interest in payment of dues and care in expenditures.

CHANGES IN THE FACULTY AND STAFF

Six former members of the faculty and staff did not return to the College for the present year. They are.

(1) Associate Professor Newell T. Preston (psychology and education), who is now Director of the Psychology Workshop, New York City; (2) Assistant Professor Robert L. Smith (Spanish), who is now engaged in aviation; (3) Mrs. James W. King, Instructor in Home Economics, whose home duties would not permit her to undertake the expanded program necessitated by the increasing registration in that field; (4) Geneva M. Hutchinson, Secretary, who accepted a position offered by the TVA; (5) Mary Miles, Assistant to the Head of Baldwin Hall, who is now Assistant Superintendent of Religious Education in the Westminster Foundation, University of Kansas; (6) Mrs. George H. Lowry, who is occupied in the management of her property interests.

The following new members of the faculty and staff have been appointed for the year 1941-1942.

(1) Lincoln Barker, B.A., M.A., Associate Professor of Psychology and Education.

LINCOLN BARKER

Professor Barker's undergraduate course was taken in Washington University, St. Louis, and Westminster College, Fulton, Missouri. His advanced study has been done in Westminster College, Princeton University, Princeton Theological Seminary, Washington University, and New York University. He was two years on the faculty of his Alma Mater, Westminster College; was eleven years Professor of Psychology, Education, and Philosophy at Arkansas College, and for five of these years served also as Dean of the College; has been for the past seven years Dean and Professor of Psychology and Philosophy at Westminster College, Salt Lake City, Utah. Professor and Mrs. Barker have two sons, one of whom is a freshman in Maryville College, and the other a senior in Maryville High School.

(2) John Hibbard Stellwagen, B.A., M.A., Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Spanish. Dr. Stellwagen received the B.A. degree from the University of Minnesota, the M.A. degree from Harvard University, and the Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago. After graduation from college he was in business for four years with the Ford Motor Co. (training for foreign service) and the Universal Credit Co. For one year he taught with the University of Minnesota, and for the past two years has been on the faculty of Baldwin-Wallace College, Ohio, teaching Spanish and French. Dr. and Mrs. Stellwagen have one daughter nine years old.

(3) Ruby Violet Lane, B.S. in H.E., M.S., Instructor in Home Economics, is teaching certain courses and giving supervision to the Home Management House program.

RUBY VIOLET LANE

She received her B.S. in H.E. degree at Maryville College in 1937 and her M.S. degree at the University of Tennessee in 1941. She has taught home economics for three years in one of the North Carolina high schools. Her sister, Frances Ruth Lane, is now a senior in Maryville College.

(4) Anne S. Dempster, Assistant to the Head of Memorial Hall. Miss Dempster's home is in Knoxville and she received her education in the South.

(5) Jessie H. Franklin, Assistant to the Head of Baldwin Hall. Her daughter, Mary Emily Franklin, graduated at Maryville College in 1936. Mrs. Franklin served some years ago as Assistant in Baldwin Hall and has served in the dormitories at the University of Tennessee.

(6) Harriet M. Miller, B.A., Assistant in the Student-Help Office. Miss Miller graduated from Maryville College in the Class of 1940, and last spring graduated from the Strayer Secretarial School in Washington, D. C. Another assistant became necessary in the Student-Help Office because of the transfer to that office of the "printing" work after the resignation of Miss Hutchinson.

(7) Some other part-time assistants, including Scott Honaker, son of Coach Honaker, who having graduated last spring after establishing a strong athletic record as a student is assisting with the football squad each day after his hours of work at the Aluminum plant.

SUMMER CHURCH MEETINGS ON THE CAMPUS

During the summer vacation this year three church conferences of four to seven days each met on the campus, using the dormitories, dining hall, and other facilities. The College maintenance and dining hall staff are on duty during such periods. The meetings this year were:

June 9-14: Young People's Conference of Knoxville Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (Southern Presbyterian). This was its ninth year at Maryville. Those present numbered 202.

June 17-20: Annual meetings and joint conference of the Synods and Synodical Societies of Tennessee, Alabama, and Mississippi of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. This was the third consecutive year that Tennessee Synod and Synodical have held such meetings at Maryville but is the first year that Alabama and Mississippi have joined Tennessee. It was a very successful meeting, with 282 persons registered. The same plan will be followed in 1942. President Lloyd of Maryville College serves as chairman of the Committee on Program, Arrangements, and Docket.

June 23-28: Joint Young People's and Senior Conference of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., with 182 young people and leaders enrolled.

AMONG THE FACULTY

President Emeritus Samuel Tyndale Wilson, living in retirement in Maryville, continues to be in about the same health as during the last year. He is quite feeble and goes away from his home very little. His daughter, Mrs. Clyde T. Murray (Olive Wilson, '13) and her family and his daughter Lois Wilson, ('16) home from her missionary work in Syria, and Dr. Wilson are all living together in the home place, "Casa Blanca."

President Ralph W. Lloyd spent the summer at the College except for a vacation trip of a week to Chicago and a number of business trips. As a member of the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, he was one of a group of between fifty and seventy-five educators of the South who spent two weeks in July at Sewanee, Tennessee, in a Work Conference on Higher Education conducted by the Southern Association and financed by the General Education Board of New York. This Conference, which considered the problems and needs of education in the South, will be continued next summer. Meanwhile a number of institutions, including Maryville, are working over the problems surveyed at Sewanee.

Dr. Briggs (psychology and education) is this year serving as chairman of the College Section of the East Tennessee Education Association. Mr. Davis (physical education) is serving as chairman of the department on Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Miss Davies (music) has been notified by the College of Wooster, of which she is a graduate, that she is one of those honored by election to Pi Kappa Lambda, national honorary musical society, of which a chapter has just been obtained by the College of Wooster.

The following members of the faculty were members of the summer school faculty at the University of Tennessee this year: Dr. Hunter (English), Dr. Queener (history), and Mr. Colbert (music).

The following members of the faculty were on the faculties of church young people's conferences in the past summer: President Lloyd as vesper speaker at one of the Maryville conferences; Mr. Dollenmayer as a teacher at Grove City College, Pa.; Dr. Gates at the College of Wooster, Ohio; Mrs. West at Sullins College, Va.; Mrs. Cummings at Kiski School, Pa.; Mr. Smith at Smyrna Camp, Ga.

The following members of the faculty pursued study during the past summer: Miss Armstrong (home economics) at Columbia University, Miss Horne (music) at Eastman School of Music, Mr. Kiger (history) at Duke University, Mr. Pieper (political science) at University of North Carolina, Miss Cowen (music) at Juilliard School of Music, Miss Purinton (art) at Columbia University, Miss Seedorf (dramatic art) at the University of Wisconsin, Miss Grierson (library) at Columbia University, Mr. Honaker (physical education), coaching clinic in Johnson City, Tenn., Mr. Davis (physical education), coaching school at Northwestern University, Mrs. Queener (physical education), Campbell Folk School at Brasstown, N. C., Mrs. Brown (biology), in the Smoky Mountains National Park.

Paul F. Wendt, Assistant Professor of Economics since 1939, in August received the degree of Ph.D. from Columbia University.

It has been announced that the following members of the faculty have been advanced from the rank of Instructor to that of Assistant Professor: Ruth E. Cowdrick, Ph.D. (French), John A. Davis, M.A. (physical education), George F. Fischbach, M.A. (physical education), Elizabeth H. Jackson, M.A. (English).

Nathalia Wright, Assistant in the Library, has written an article to appear in a forthcoming issue of the New England Quarterly Review entitled "Hawthorne and L'Affaire Praslin."

Dr. William P. Stevenson, who has now retired from most of his active duties as College Pastor but who continues to live and serve on the campus, during the past summer made a ten-thousand mile automobile trip to the national parks of the Far West. His ultimate objective was Jasper Park in western Canada but on the journey he visited the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone Park, the Canadian Rockies, and various other parks and points of interest. He was gone from Maryville about a month and a half and drove his car all the distance alone. Dr. Stevenson will celebrate his eighty-first birthday on December 24.

TRIPS BY COLLEGE OFFICERS

In addition to various trips made by President Lloyd in the interests of the financial development of the College the following program is being followed this fall by other officers:

Miss Henry, Director of Student-Help, is spending a considerable part of October and November in the East. Among her appointments is an address on "The Maryville College Rotating Loan Fund" before the National Officers and the State Regents of the D.A.R., in Washington, October 23.

Dr. McClelland, Dean of Students, is dividing two weeks in October and November among the Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, and Philadelphia areas.

Mr. Black, Director of Maintenance, expects to spend two weeks in November in western Pennsylvania.

"ISNALA"

"THE STUDIO HOUSE"

For many years one of the most interesting and attractive places in Maryville has been the house at the northeast edge of the college campus, built and used as a home and art studio by the late Anna Belle Smith. Through a Declaration of Trust made in 1931 this studio house, with furnishings and contents, was transferred by Miss Smith as a gift to Maryville College. It was agreed that Miss Belle Smith or her sisters Mrs. John M. Alexander and Miss Elizabeth Smith and her brother-in-law the Rev. Dr. John M. Alexander, would retain possession and use of the house during their lifetimes. Mrs. Alexander, for thirty-three years a teacher at Maryville College, died in 1938. Miss Belle Smith died May 8, 1939.

Dr. Alexander, Miss Elizabeth Smith, and Miss Nan Cheney, a close friend of Miss Elizabeth Smith and her late sisters, reside in the Alexander home adjacent to the studio. Through their courtesy and generous interest in the College the "Anna Belle Smith Studio House" has been placed at the service of the College this year. It becomes something of a Fine Arts center. A studio reception was held there recently by the faculty of the Division of Fine Arts. The classes in Art meet there daily, thus releasing rooms in Anderson Hall formerly occupied as studios.

The house contains several rooms of which the large studio, with its fireplace, tall brick inside chimney (shown in the accompanying picture), north skylight, and furnishings, is especially impressive. The stairs and balcony within the large studio are unique. There is a "living room" with piano, dishes, and other attractive and useful contents, a kitchen, bedroom, bathroom, storeroom, and basement. The porches and surroundings likewise are attractive.

The plan and contents of the house reflect the artistic taste and personality of Miss Belle Smith. There are many articles brought from various countries and a number of lovely pictures painted by Miss Smith. Most of these have been put away for safe keeping. The house, as has been intimated, is furnished throughout.

Anna Belle Smith was born in Connecticut and received her academic and art education in New England, New York, Boston, Paris, Egypt, Palestine, and elsewhere. From 1914 to 1921 she was on the faculty of Maryville College as teacher of Art and Head of the Art Department as it was then organized. About 1919 her interest in books and people led her to give her effort to the building of a city library in Maryville. In 1921 she closed her teaching work and gave full time as librarian in the city library until her death in 1939. In the city and in the College she has left a valuable heritage.

She named her studio house "Isnala," an Indian name meaning "Alone." A tablet containing this name and a statement that the house and its contents were the gift of Anna Belle Smith is to be placed on the house.

THE FEBRUARY MEETINGS OF 1942

The sixty-sixth series of February Meetings will be held February 4-12, 1942. The preacher this year will be Rev. Clifford E. Barbour, Ph.D., D.D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, of Knoxville, Tennessee.

For the twentieth time the singing will be in charge of Rev. Sidney E. Stringham, who is at present pastor of the Shaw Avenue Methodist Church, St. Louis, Missouri. All Maryville alumni who have graduated during the past twenty years have felt some acquaintance with Mr. Stringham. And three-fourths of all our living alumni have graduated within those twenty years, because in that period the classes have been much larger than in earlier years.

This will be the second series led by Dr. Barbour. He was the preacher of the series in 1938, the year before the present seniors entered college. He is a native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and holds degrees from the University of Pittsburgh, Western Theological Seminary, the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Maryville College. Before coming to Knoxville in 1928, his ministry was in Pittsburgh, as pastor of Heron Avenue Presbyterian Church and as assistant to Dr. Hugh T. Kerr in the Shadyside Presbyterian Church with special responsibility for students in the University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Tech. The Second Presbyterian Church, Knoxville, of which he is now pastor, was organized and supplied for ten years by Dr. Isaac Anderson, Founder and first President of Maryville College.

Since 1924, the leaders of the February Meetings have been as follows: 1924—Dr. Edgar A. Elmore; 1925—Dr. William Thaw Bartlett; 1926—Dr. Joseph M. Broady; 1927—Dr. Frank Marston; 1928—Dr. Ralph Waldo Lloyd; 1929—Dr. John M. Vander Meulen; 1930—Dr. Roy Ewing Vale; 1931—Dr. Ralph Waldo Lloyd; 1932—Dr. William Hiram Foulkes; 1933—Dr. Ralph Marshall Davis; 1934—Dr. Roy Ewing Vale; 1935—Dr. William Taliaferro Thompson; 1936—Dr. Louis H. Evans; 1937—Dr. Howard Moody Morgan; 1938—Dr. Clifford E. Barbour; 1939—Dr. Harrison Ray Anderson; 1940—Dr. Louis H. Evans; 1941—Dr. Howard Moody Morgan.

THE COLLEGE DAIRY

Through the generosity of an interested friend it has been possible to make some very important improvements at the College Dairy which supplies milk to the College Dining Hall.

Last year a modern refrigeration and cooling unit was built. At present there is nearing completion a modern type milking barn designed by dairy authorities. These two buildings are constructed of cinderblock, concrete, and metal, and are fireproof. They stand adjacent to the large frame feeding barn whose size was doubled a few years ago, making it approximately one hundred feet long; it is being increased again now to about one hundred and forty feet, thus adding forty per cent to its capacity.

Last spring the old Lamar house was taken down and the material used to build a large much needed implement shed near the barn. A large silo has been built in recent years. Six Jersey cows were added to the herd this fall.

A few smaller things and a good looking white fence are in the plans which when completed should make the Maryville College Dairy a modern sanitary plant of attractive appearance. It should be so because it is on a major highway into the Smoky Mountains National Park.

LOAN FUND IN MEMORY OF MRS. ALEXANDER

Sometime ago a group of alumni asked the College for the privilege of starting a loan fund in memory of the late Mrs. Jane Bancroft Smith Alexander, under whom they studied at Maryville.

Subscriptions to the Loan Fund are being received from other former students of Mrs. Alexander by a committee composed of: Wiley Rutledge, ex-'14, U. S. Court of Appeals, Washington, D. C. (Honorary Chairman); Frances M. Brown, ex-'17, 258 Lafayette Avenue, Passaic, N. J. (Chairman); George H. Osborn, '32, Southern Boulevard, Chatham, N. J.; and Alice Wright Carson, '17, Vonore, Tenn. An attractive bulletin has been issued by the committee under the title, "A Student Loan Fund—A Living Memorial—Mrs. Jane B. S. Alexander." Good progress has been made, several hundred dollars having been subscribed.

Mrs. Alexander was a teacher in Maryville College for thirty-three years, most of them in the field of English Literature; she retired in 1934 because of age and limited health; her death occurred March 2, 1938. Her husband, Rev. Dr. John M. Alexander, and her sister, Miss Elizabeth Smith, continue to reside in Maryville near the college campus.

THE GEORGE A. KNAPP MATHEMATICS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

In July, 1941, there was established at Maryville College "The George A. Knapp Mathematics Scholarship Fund" of $1,000 in memory of Dr. George A. Knapp, who was Professor of Mathematics and Physics here from 1914 until his retirement in 1938. The Alumni Magazine of April, 1941, reported Dr. Knapp's death at the age of eighty on November 4, 1940, and told of his half century of service as a college teacher, twenty-four of them at Maryville.

This Scholarship Fund has been established by Dr. Knapp's son, Tracy F. Knapp, '20, and his two daughters, Mary Gertrude Knapp Barrett, and Josephine Knapp Kiefer, '18.

The purpose and plan of the Fund are set forth in part in the following extract from the Declaration of Trust: "The income from this memorial fund shall be awarded each year at or about the commencement season as a prize to the most outstanding and most promising student majoring in mathematics, enrolled in either the junior or senior class of Maryville College. . . . If in any year, in the judgment of the Committee, there is no student who qualifies under the terms and spirit of this award, the income for that year shall be added to the principal fund."
